About Artistic Empowerment Centers

AEC is a 501(c)3 non-profit performing arts outreach organization focused on transforming lives using the tool of creative communication to develop growth and development by inspiring those blessed to share in our productions to engage in lifting as we climb. Inspired by the digression of our family values, core beliefs and morals, AEC is putting feet to our faith by taking it's place of responsibility to share what God has given us. We're glad to have you join us on the journey.
